What to do when you cry in the car...

Because it happens.

(A gentle reminder)

Back to Faith in the Car

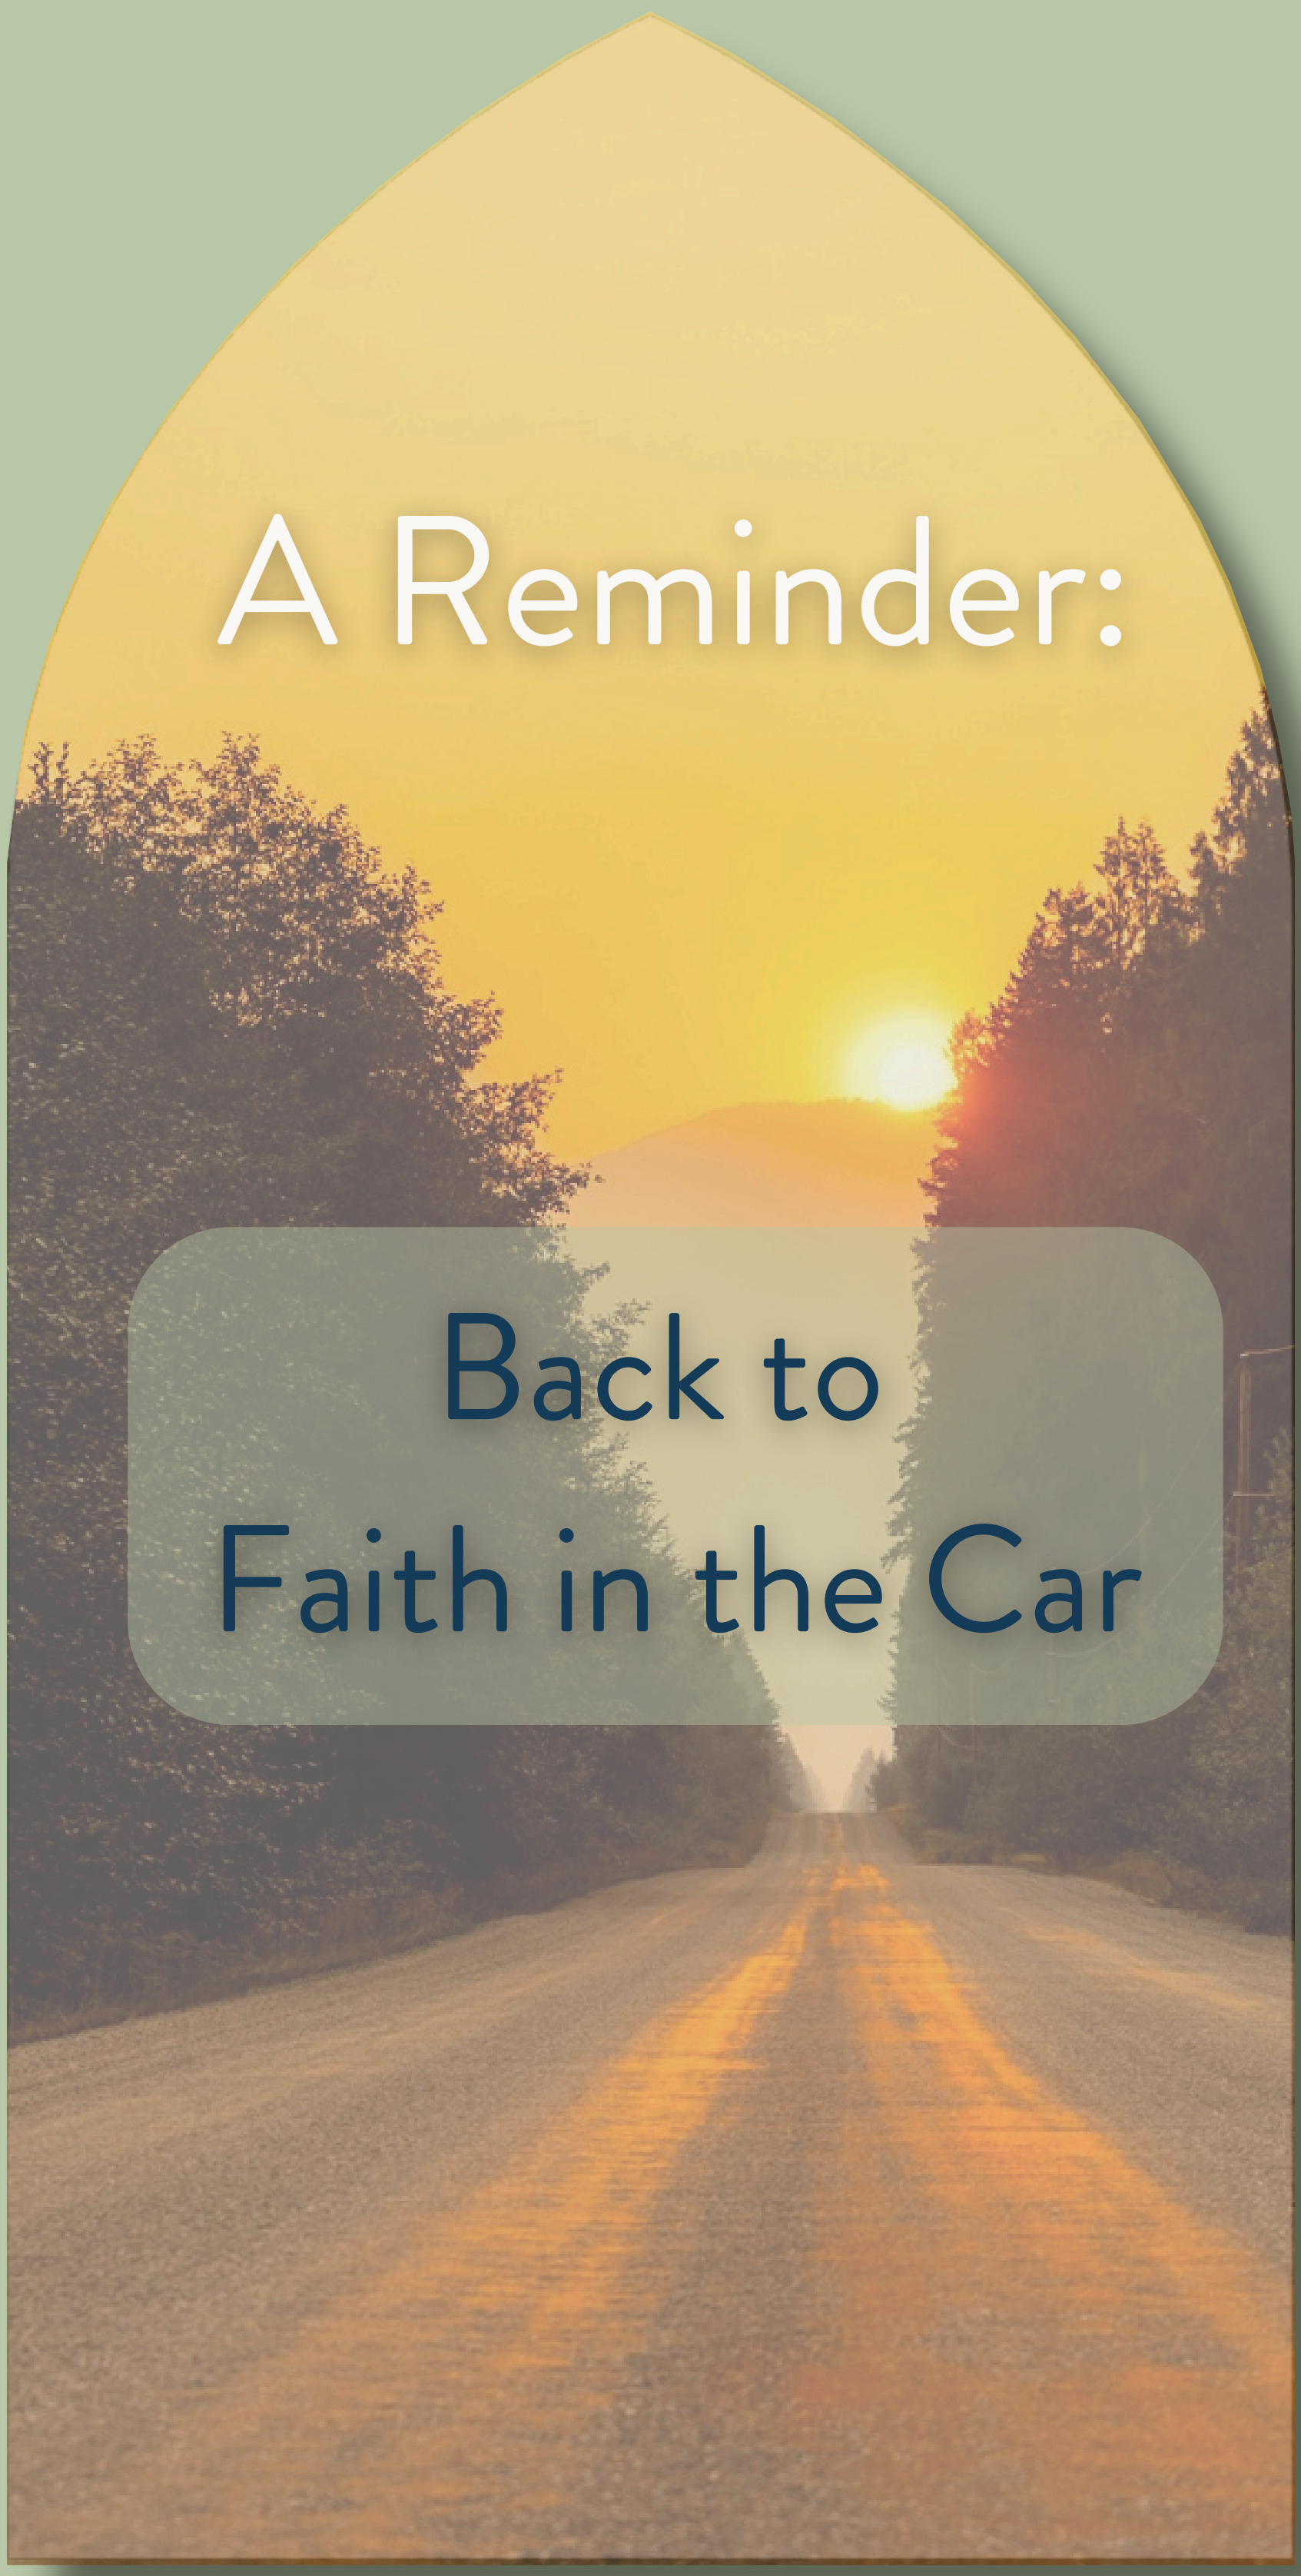
Life x dESign

A Reminder:

If the car has ever been your hiding place or your crying space, you are not failing. You are human. God meets people in caves, deserts, closets, and yes, minivans. Breathe. Talk to Him honestly. He is not disappointed in your limits. He is near to the brokenhearted.

Back to Faith in the Car

A Reminder:



Back to Faith in the Car